

DROPOUT KINGS

Dropout Kings are a genre-blending band that merges the sounds of heavy metal and hip hop/trap to create their signature "Trap Metal" style. They pride themselves on being pioneers in this unique genre, crafting fresh and innovative soundscapes. Their music features introspective rap lyrics and passionate vocals over polished, metal-inspired instrumentation, as demonstrated in songs like "GlitchGang" and "Virus," which peaked at #27 on the Billboard Rock Radio Charts. Formed in 2016, Dropout Kings have built a strong following, garnering millions of streams from their debut album Audiodope, released in 2018 through Napalm Records. The band quickly gained recognition for their raw talent and creative fortitude, leading to a signing with Stay Sick Recordings and the release of their GlitchGang EP in 2019. In 2021, they signed with Suburban Noize Records and re-released the EP to further establish themselves as a force to be reckoned with. Their next album, Riot Music, was released on May 5th, 2023 via Suburban Noize Records. Following the tragic loss of vocalist Adam Ramey, the band welcomed back former members Chucky Guzman and Joe Lana, with Rob Sebastian stepping into the vocal role to carry forward Adam's legacy. Their new album, Yokai, will be released on August 8th, 2025 via Napalm Records.
