Swedish rock'n'roll powerhouse THUNDERMOTHER has inked a worldwide record deal with Napalm Records! Founded in 2009 by guitarist Filippa Nässil, the band is well-known for their electrifying rock anthems and relentless touring – some live highlights include supporting the legendary Scorpions both in North America and Europe, playing the KISS Kruise and performing regularly at major festivals such as Wacken Open Air. In 2021, THUNDERMOTHER was even awarded the GAFFA prize for Best Hard Rock/Metal.

Earlier this year THUNDERMOTHER unleashed their highly acclaimed 6th album Dirty & Divine, first one with the new lineup consisting of Filippa Nässil, vocalist Linnéa Vikström Egg, returning bass player Majsan Lindberg and drummer Joan Massing, reaching the top 3 on the Official German Rock/Metal Charts. Now, they are ready to take this new era of the band to all new dimensions through joining forces with Napalm Records!

THUNDERMOTHER guitarist and founder Filippa Nässil comments:

“Napalm wanted to sign us for a long time, but we were under another contract. Now it feels really good to finally join them, because they’ve shown us they have the fire. They share strong visions like we do. We already started working on the next release and we’re stoked!”

Napalm Records Managing Director Thomas Caser adds:

“We are thrilled to welcome THUNDERMOTHER to the Napalm Records family! The band represents pure, high-energy rock'n'roll like few others, and we can't wait to open the next chapter of their success story together.”
